L'université McGill attache une haute importance à l'honnêteté académique. Il incombe par conséquent à tous les étudiants de comprendre ce que l'on entend par tricherie, plagiat et autres infractions académiques, ainsi que les conséquences que peuvent avoir de telles actions, selon le Code de conduite de l'étudiant et des procédures disciplinaires (pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter le site (<http://www.mcgill.ca/integrity/>)).

In accord with McGill University's Charter of Students' Rights, students in this course have the right to submit in English or in French any written work that is to be graded. (approved by Senate on 21 January, 2009)

Students who because of religious commitment cannot meet academic obligations, other than final examinations, on certain holy days are responsible for informing their instructor, with two weeks' notice of each conflict. Possible solutions include: (a) rescheduling the evaluation, or (b) preparing an alternative evaluation for that particular student, or (c) shifting the weight normally assigned to the evaluation to the weight assigned to the remaining evaluation. When the instructor and student are unable to agree on suitable accommodation, the matter will be referred to the Associate Dean, who may request official documentation confirming the student's religious affiliation. The Associate Dean will convey the decision to the instructor and student.
