This is a sample registration for the program based on 4 terms in the program. Students can adjust based on the number of assigned additional courses, but the thesis credits should remain as indicated below.

The thesis can be submitted in one of two formats: in-depth monograph-style thesis, or a research-paper-based thesis. Students who prefer to write an in-depth monograph-style thesis will take MUGS 684 Master's Thesis Research 2 as a complementary course. Students who prefer a research-paper-based thesis will take MUGS 684 Master's Thesis Research 1 as a complementary course.
