

Minor Program Psychology
Faculty of Science

Students are required to complete 24 credits in Psychology, of which a maximum of 6 credits may be applied towards the major (faculty or honours) program requirements. This is referred to as "overlapping credits". The prerequisite course in Introductory Statistics is not included in the 24 credits required for the minor program.

Prerequisite requirement (not counted towards 24 credits of minor program)

3 credits in Introductory Statistics, selected from among the following acceptable courses:

PSYC 204___ MATH 203___ MATH 323___ MCCR 271___
MATH 357___ BIOL 373___ ECON 227___ ECON 257___

Minor Program Requirements (24 complementary credits):

3 or 6 credits selected from the following (all are three credit courses)

_____ PSYC 211 Introduction to Behavioural Neuroscience
_____ PSYC 212 Perception
_____ PSYC 213 Cognition
_____ PSYC 215 Social Psychology

18 or 21 credits Psychology at the 300 level or above:

PSYC _____ PSYC _____ PSYC _____

PSYC _____ PSYC _____ PSYC _____

(PSYC _____)