1 DELF (Diplôme d'études en langue française) / DALF (Diplôme approfondi de langue française)

Do you want to study at a university in France or in another francophone country? Would you like to work in French in Europe? McGill University is the National Examination Centre in Quebec for official French language certification. Individuals interested in pursuing official recognition of their proficiency in French as a second or foreign language can attain the Diplôme d'études de langue française (DELF) or the Diplôme approfondi de langue française (DALF) at McGill's School of Continuing Studies. Successful DELF and DALF candidates are exempt from writing entry-level language tests at all French universities, and both diplomas are recognized by the Council of Europe, by European employers, and by universities in other francophone countries.

2 Introduction

McGill University is the National Examination Centre in Quebec for the DELF and the DALF. The Diplôme d'études en langue française (DELF), which has two levels, and the Diplôme approfondi de langue française (DALF) are given by the French Ministry of National Education to certify foreign candidates' skills in French. These diplomas are recognized by the Council of Europe and the Ministère de l'Immigration, de la Diversité et de l'Inclusion by the Council of Europe.

2 units:

- B1
- B2

DALF

The DALF covers specialized usage of French in a discipline of the candidate's choice. It represents an advanced level of knowledge of the French language in general context as well as the ability to cover specialized topics.

2 units:

- C1
- C2

Conditions

The DELF is composed of four (4) units. The DALF is composed of two (2) units. You may obtain them separately in the country or countries of your choice. Each unit represents approximately 100 hours of study and is certified by a diploma. All marks are final and not subject to appeal.

You can undertake the different units at your own pace; you will retain crf choice.
